Not less than 560 children are now instructed in the several SundaySchools of this place, and upwards of 110 of there are constantly employed in spinning, knitting, or sewing, during the remainder of the week in the School of Industry at the lower end of St. James s-street. As establishments therefore of this kind are likely to prove several ways highly beneficial, there cannot be the least doubt entertained os their ever failing to meet with that fame generous protection and support which they have happily hitherto experienced, and so justly deserve. The house is now under the care of one matron, and six mistresses of the schools, who teach the children to spin, knit, sew, c. The Theatre, situated in Orchard-street, is established by royal patent granted to John Palmer, esq; the proprietor: The form of it, as far as the pit and boxes extend, is serai with circular; the front on the sides of the stage are adorned with columns of the Doric and Ionic orders, and the ornaments are expressive of and bear analogy to the amusements of the place. It is furnished with a large lobby or waiting room, with proper retiring rooms, and at the top of the house are ventilators. In fliort, nothing is omitted that can contribute either to its beauty or convenience. The whole was designed and executed by Mr. Palmer, architect; and it is universally allowed, for its size, to...
