Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Open of Instiitutional Church League Early in March, 1894, the following letter was sent out to a number of individuals and was also printed in some of the leading religious journals: - New York, Mar. 6, 1894. My Dear Brother: - The time seems ripe for an organized advance along the lines of practical church work. A number of churches, having experimented for several years with some of the newer methods, have reached results which encourage us to believe that the burning question How to reach the masses is practically solved. What we now need is co-operation and aggressive action on the part of these churches. It has been thought that if a few of the pastors and laymen who are interested in the Free, Open-door, or Institutional Church methods could get together for a conference, much good might result. Possibly a league might be formed for the advancement of new methods. Knowing of your interest in the subject, we take the liberty of asking you to join us in a conference to be...
