Excerpt: . . . 11 viding adequate reimbursement to assure access to care, not only for our Medicare population but all citizens. PREPARED STATEMENT Mr. Chairman and my colleagues, I look forward to continuing to work with you, the President, and our other Senate and House col-leagues on developing meaningful reforms that will allow rural hos-pitals to continue to provide their communities with important and accessible affordable quality health care. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman. The statement follows: REPARED TATEMENT OF ENATOR HUCK AGEL P S S C H Chairman Cochran, Senator Kohl, distinguished committee members, thank you for inviting me here today to discuss the impact of the 1997 Balanced Budget Act ( BBA ) on our nations rural hospitals. To date, only 30 percent of the BBA has been implemented. Nevertheless, recent studies indicate that if the BBA is fully imple-mented in its current form, access to health care services in rural America, includ-ing my state of Nebraska, will be severely threatened. In most cases, rural hospitals, community health centers, and rural health clinics are the only source of primary health care services for hundreds of miles. When they are forced to close their doors, the impact on the community they once served can be devastating - not only on the health and physical well-being of its citizens - but also for the communitys economic growth and prosperity. Without ready access to quality primary health care for workers and their families, these communities will...
